TAX REFORM SESSION

Congress has passed the largest and most comprehensive tax reform legislation in the past 30 years. Businesses and individuals alike are trying to figure out the tax implications and what this means for them in their current situation and moving forward. NAIOP Connecticut & Suburban New York will host this luncheon program on Tax Reform to explore the key provisions, effective dates, how the current plan impacts you, and possible action items and next steps. Don't wait until December to get the answers to your questions.

Our panelists include John J. Mezzanotte of Marcum who is the Firm's office managing partner in Greenwich, Connecticut. He offers more than 30 years of diverse tax experience. Joining John will be Mark Sklarz, a partner with Green & Sklarz LLC. For over 45 years, Mark Sklarz has advised companies of all sizes through hundreds of sophisticated transactions.
